Prosecution Disclosure of Giglio Material

15 October 2012

On 22 June 2012, the United States submitted its initial Witness List in the above referenced court-martial. See Appellate Exhibit (AE) CLXII. On 14 August 2012 and 4 September 2012, the United States submitted its Witness Lists regarding Article 13, Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ). See Appellate Exhibit CCXXXIX. Beginning in July 2012, the United States began requesting any impeachment materials for witnesses not being offered purely for authentication purposes. The United States requested that the departments, agencies, organizations, and military commands, to which the government witnesses are employed or assigned, conduct a thorough and comprehensive search of their own records for impeachment material and disclose any responsive records. See enclosed sample Giglio request; see also Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972).

As of 15 October 2012, the United States has reviewed its own files and records received in response to its requests. In addition to prior disclosures, the United States discloses the following and makes available for inspection all discoverable material:

1. (b) (6) . The prosecution did not find any such material relating to this witness.
2. (b) (6) . In addition to disclosure(s) already provided, any material relating to this witness is available for inspection with the prosecution.
